SHE'S SO HIGH was an early running, classy filly that showed terrific consistency and versatility in her short 10 start career.

Her debut win at Sandown over 1000m returned a 94 WFA Performance Rating – less than 0.75% of the racing population debut with a rating of 94 or better.

She subsequently went on to run a peak rating of 99.3 in her three-year-old season, ranking her 22 of 3,503 individual three-year-old fillies to race that season. That placed her in the top 0.63% of her generation.

Beyond her absolute talent, She's So High was remarkably consistent, running a stakes class rating of 97+ in five of her 11 career starts, with 10 of her 11 performances within 3 lengths of her absolute best.

She produced stakes class ratings of 97+ at distances of 1000m, 1100m, 1200m and 1400m, on tracks rated from Good 3 through to Soft 6.

In her short career She's So High showed more than most mares ever do, with a level of talent, consistency and versatility that stamp her as an exciting prospect for the breeding barn.

“She's a talent.”
