OVERVIEW

It is very rare that race fillies of the calibre of I Am A Star become available on the open market. The winner of over $1,500,000 in prizemoney, I Am A Star won 9 Group races over the course of her career. The most accomplished race filly by the incomparable I Am Invincible to ever be sold at public auction, I Am A Star would be the proverbial star of any broodmare band combining race performance with pedigree as she hails from the phenomenal Fanfreluche family that has produced Encosta De Lago and Flying Spur.

I AM A STAR is a rare find.

She showed her top-class talent very early as a two-year-old and trained on to win one or more Group class races at each of her next four preparations, into her five-year-old season.

At just her second career start, I Am A Star recorded a 102 WFA Performance Rating when she won in impressive fashion over 1100m at Flemington. Only 18 of more than 34,000 individual horses rated from the start of their career have achieved a 102 rating or better within their first two career starts. It's an incredibly rare accomplishment.

She then backed that up with a 100.7 rating winning easily by 3 lengths at G3 level over 1200m at Morphettville, making it two 100+ ratings within her first three career starts.

After just three starts as a two-year-old, I Am A Star finished the season as the fifth best of her generation and second-best Filly.

She went on to have a stellar three-year-old season that included a Spring G1 WFA Myer Classic win over 1600m against older Mares and in the Autumn a dominant 3.3 length win in the G2 WFA Sunline Stakes, also against older Mares.

I Am A Star finished the season as the equal highest rated Filly in Australia up to 1600m and the seventh best overall, in a season widely regarded as one of the strongest in recent history.

I Am A Star offers an incredible resume of traits to pass onto her progeny:

- ✓ High class talent as a 2YO – Ran a 102 rating at just her second start, something achieved by just 0.05% of the population. Won a G3 race at just her third career start.
- ✓ The substance and consistency to train on as an older horse – She won one or more group class races in four consecutive preparations after her two-year-old season.
- ✓ Distance versatility – Won Group class races over 1100m, 1400m and 1600m.
- ✓ Tactical versatility – Won Group class races coming from the tail of the field and settling up on the lead.
